

Apex Surveys are an established Land Survey company operating from offices in Dunboyne, Co Meath. We Service the greater Dublin area and the island if Ireland.

We are involved in all aspects of surveying including Topographical and GPS Surveys, Measured Building Surveys, Control Networking, Site Setting Out, Underground Utility Surveys and Legal Mapping.

Underground Utility Surveyor

We are currently expanding into the underground utility detection sector and are seeking an experienced Land Surveyor or Geophysicist to manage this department. The successful candidate will have relevant experience with GPR equipment/software, Cat and Sonde, drainage drawings etc and will be responsible for staff training and project management.

All candidates will have strong communication skills, be capable of working in a team and also be self motivated.

Salary will be negotiable depending on experience

Contact: recruitment@apexsurveys.ie