

International Association of Hydrogeologists

Irish Group

EVENING LECTURE and WEBCAST

IRISH MINING AND QUARRYING SOCIETY (IMQS) and THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION of HYDROGEOLOGISTS -IRISH GROUP (IAH)

The Geological Survey of Ireland (GSI) has a surprisingly extensive, detailed database which is all YOURS!!

NB: This lecture will be invaluable to those involved in exploration, site investigation, geotechnical engineering, environmental engineering, geology and hydrogeology, quarry development and planning.

Dear Member

The Irish Mining and Quarrying Society (IMQS) in association with the International Association of Hydrogeologists -Irish Group (IAH) is pleased to invite you to attend the following evening lecture:

Title: Digging into Geological Databases - a guide to FREE websites

Speaker: Mr. Ray Scanlon, Geological Survey of Ireland

Date: Tuesday, 5th May 2009

Time: 18.30pm

Venue: Lecture Theatre, Engineers Ireland, 22 Clyde Road, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4

This lecture will be webcast by Engineers Ireland at 18.30 p.m. on Tuesday, 5th May 2009.

For those new to using our webcast facility, please see www.engineersireland.ie/webcast for information on how to set-up and access our webcasts.

To view the event, please log onto the url below:

<https://engineersireland.webex.com/engineersireland/onstage/g.php?d=844549579&t=a>

Event number: 844 549 579

Event password: database

For further information, closer to the date, please contact Siobhán Tinnelly at siobhan.tinnelly@tobin.ie or 01-8030401.